

Answers

Sesquipedalian – given to using long words, words containing many syllables

Proverbial – resembling a proverb

Paraphrastic – having the nature of a paraphrase

Circumlocution – using more words than necessary to express an idea; a roundabout expression

1. Twinkle, twinkle little star.
2. Birds of a feather flock together.
3. Look before you leap.
4. Beauty is only skin deep.
5. It does no good to cry over spilt milk.
6. Cleanliness is next to Godliness.
7. You cannot teach an old dog new tricks.
8. All that glitters is not gold.
9. Where there is smoke, there is fire.
10. Too many cooks spoil the broth.